Look on google maps and see if you can identify the oceans on our planet. Look at a map of where you live on google maps. Can you find your house. What number is your home? Zoom out from your home. Can you see any oceans in Selly Oak or in Birmingham? What types of water do we have nearby? These are called bodies of water.	 Bug Club Please read your allocated home reading books on Bug Club and carry out the activities within the book.

You could write a list of the bodies of water that are nearby or draw a picture of them.

Talk to your grown up about animals that might live in these bodies of water. Think back to The Messy Magpie story. How can you look after these places?

Tuesday

This morning's task is Maths

This afternoon's task is PE

Today we are learning to read by sight.

Tricky words can NOT be sounded out – we need to learn them.

Ask a grown up to write each of these words on a different piece of paper.

I, no, go, to, the, into.

Put the words on the floor or on the wall.

When your grown up says one of the words find it and run/walk/hop/jump to it.

Today we are learning about the different days of the week

Watch Miss Molnar and Herald the hedgehog's video about the days of the week:
